DOCTORS ADVISED HIM TO GO TO A HOSPITAL

Mr. B. H. Rogers Suffered With Stomach Troubles for Five Years—"I Tried Nearly Everything, but Nothing
Did Me Any Good," He Says.
He Takes Three Bottles of MENDOL and Gains Fifteen Pounds—Feels Like a New Man—"MENDOL Saved My Life," He Says.

Speaking of MENDOL, Mr. B. H. Rogers, residing at 810 Cowart St., Chattanooga, Tenn., made this wonderful statement while at Live and Let Live Drug company:

"I had been in bad health for five years, and had tried nearly every medicine imaginable, but nothing did me any good," said Mr. Rogers. "I suffered with severe pains in my stomach, and my liver gave me trouble all the time. My digestion was so bad that I could not eat a thing without it hurting me. I suffered so much that I lost numbers of pounds. Numbers of doctors advised me to go to a hospital and have an operation, as they all said they could do nothing for me, but I simply would not give up hopes. One day as I was looking over the paper, I saw MENDOL advertised and recommended so highly that I bought a bottle of this tonic the very next day. I will give it at least a trial," I said. After I had taken the first bottle, I began to feel fine, and by the time I had finished the third bottle, I felt like a new man. I have gained fifteen pounds, and am improving every day. I can eat anything I wish to without it hurting me, and my appetite is fine. My liver, too, is in better condition than ever before.

"MENDOL has certainly saved my life, and I recommend it to every one as being the best medicine on earth." MENDOL exclusive agency is removed. MENDOL can be bought now at any drug store in Chattanooga and suburbs. MENDOL is manufactured by MENDOL Laboratories, Rossville, Ga. —(Adv.)

G. T. FITZHUGH WINS GRATITUDE OF WOMEN

WHILE OTHERS CHARGE, HE SERVES GRATIS.

Assisted Women in Effort to Secure Recognition of Their Rights.

Nashville, Oct. 31.—The Hon. G. T. Fitzhugh is going to be quite the most popular man in the state of Tennessee with the recently enfranchised women when the news of the latest evidence of his attitude towards woman suffrage becomes known. In the midst of the general rejoicing among the women over the decision of the supreme court which reversed the decision of the chancery court of Davidson county and upheld the constitutionality of the suffrage bill, the women lost sight of the fact that lawsuits had been involved and lawsuits cost money. But when, upon asking the Nashville attorneys who had fought their case for them what their bill amounted to, and finding that the total bill for the three Davidson county lawyers ran close to $2,000, the women were longer faces than they possessed at any time since the supreme court had declared they were citizens.

Then when they remembered that one of the leading legal lights of Shelby county, Capt. T. Fitzhugh, had gone to Nashville from Memphis when the legislature was in session, and had worked for the passage of the bill, had again gone to Nashville when the case was up before the chancery court, and had yet again gone to Nashville to argue the case before the supreme court, they wondered more than ever where the money to pay their just and lawful debts would come from.

For if men who lived in Nashville and had neither railroad fares nor hotel bills to pay had charged in this fashion for their services, what would Mr. Fitzhugh's bill be?

On Friday, representing the Tennessee Suffrage association, Mrs. John M. Kenney, of Nashville, and Mrs. Isaac Reese, of this city, called on Mr. Fitzhugh and asked for his bill. Then and there Mr. Fitzhugh won the gratitude of every suffragist in Tennessee, and won at the same time the unshakable belief that there was a man who really fought for suffrage because he wanted the women to get what he considered their just due.

For Mr. Fitzhugh answered that what he had done had been done because he honestly believed in woman's suffrage, and that his services had been given gladly and with no thought of pay, solely in order to help the women win their fight. Not a word about railroad fares, not a word about hotel bills, not a word about the loss a busy lawyer suffers when he goes away from home.

Not a word about any of these things. Only the statement, "I am glad I could be of service to the women in gaining the right that should have been theirs long ago. I am glad to have been able to see them admitted to partial rights of citizenship. I hope soon to see them given full suffrage."

In short, Mr. Fitzhugh was at the command of the women when they needed him, and he gave his services generously.

Will the women be at Mr. Fitzhugh's command when he needs them? Ask any woman you see and notice how quickly every one of them answers, "Of course we will."

Increased Pay for Teachers Strongly Advocated

Knoxville, Oct. 31.—(Special.)—Increased pay for teachers of East Tennessee was strongly advocated in addresses at the State Mothers' congress and Parent-Teachers' association convention here, Sept. 22. Miller, of Knoxville, struck the keynote of the speeches when he said that the public might well demand better service from teachers in some districts if they could be paid better salaries and encouraged to put forth their best efforts.

"As we look at the children in the schools we know that they are the supreme American problem of today," he said. "In some ways I am glad of the strike and unrest that has visited this country, because it has taught us as nothing else could that we have to begin with the child and see that he is trained in the way he should go."

Prof. D. S. Burleson, of the state normal school, Johnson City, declared that "if the school succeeds as it should, we shall have to make a home out of it." He urged parents co-operate with teachers and suggested they visit school rooms more often.

Mrs. Eugene Crutcher, of Nashville, in a message said: "The National Congress of Mothers was founded to reach every home and to help all who had the care of the children. The organization of Mother's clubs and Parent-Teachers' associations is but a means to the end of reaching homes and giving to them the vision of the great need of their work. In child nature and practical suggestions as to how to develop right standards of life for all their children."

"In working toward the solution of the problem that confront us and the aim and purpose of this organization, the National Congress of Mothers has created a number of departments working under able chairmen."

"Let our slogan be 'back to school, stay in school, and train for the future,'" she said. "If good government is to continue with us it is high time that we raised the standards of intelligence among our people. The hope of our race is in the childhood of today, which means the citizenship of tomorrow."

Linotype Operators of Nashville Papers Strike

Demand Additional Bonus of $1 Per Day Above Existing Contract.

Nashville, Oct. 31.—(Special.)—Nashville newspapers found themselves paralyzed as a result of a printers strike which materialized last night. Despite contractual agreement between union printers and the Nashville Banner, Nashville Tennessean and American, as to wages, valid until 1921. Local newspaper printers have received three bonuses since 1917, when the contract was entered into. Only two months ago an additional bonus was granted.

Several days ago the printers formulated demands which were presented to the local publishers, demanding another bonus. This has been denied, the strike resulting. Last night the foreman and one compositor remained in the Tennessean, and the foreman followed this morning. At the Banner three compositors and two ad setters, in addition to three proof readers, remained.

Both papers were forced to get out small editions and no advertising was received today.

The publishers have issued a card to the public setting forth the issues involved, and declaring an absolute permanent cessation of publication before they will be coerced in the matter. The strike is held to be illegal, and the position of the publishers has been sustained by a representative of the International Typographical union, Mr. Barrett.

Nashville, Oct. 31.—Nashville afternoon newspapers today are getting out papers greatly reduced in size and with short composing room forces, the result of the walkout of compositors.

The situation developed last night in the composing room of the Tennessean, when all but two linotype operators walked out, and continued when work began on the afternoon papers, the Banner and the American, the latter a subsidiary of the Tennessean. In the Banner composing rooms, the ad men, except one, and all but four machine operators walked out, while the American reported five men at work, two of them being linotype operators. The papers announced that they will reduce the size of their issues and go ahead. The printers involved are union men and were working under a contract that continues till Jan. 1, 1921. The contract calls for pay at the rate of $4.25 and $4.75 for day and night work, respectively. In the past three months bonuses aggregating $1.25 per day above the scale have been granted by the publishers. A committee appointed by the president of the local union, this week asked for another bonus of $1 per day. The publishers declined to grant, but offered to submit the question to arbitration.

REDUCES SILVER IN PESO

Decree Intended to Prevent Disappearance of Mexican Silver.
Mexico City, Oct. 31.—A new silver coinage for Mexico of a peso containing twelve grams of silver is provided for in a decree signed Oct. 29 at Queretaro by President Carranza and which will be published here today. The amount of silver in the 60 and 20 centavo pieces is reduced in equal proportions. Like the decree issued Nov. 13, 1918, the present steps are taken to prevent the disappearance of Mexican silver coins as a result of the high price of silver.

Program for First League Of Nations Made Out

Paris, Oct. 31.—A complete program for the first meeting of the league of nations has already been drawn up by Sir Eric Drummond, secretary-general of the league. It was learned today. In the meantime the American delegates insist that their attitude is one of hands off until the senate ratifies the treaty.

LIMIT POWER OF COUNCIL

Trouble Brewing in Ranks of Metal Workers.
Berlin, Oct. 31.—The decision of the employers in the German metal industry to limit the powers of the workers' council as to control and direction of the business was met today by a threat of the workmen, most of whom are on strike, to call a general strike. The strike leaders are hinting at "sabotage and riots" if a crisis comes.
